Liability Release and Assumption of Risk

In order to fairly and honestly inform you of the service we provide, you should know and appreciate that participation and/or use of any equipment during this trip involves certain specific risks and danger which are inherent in river canoeing and other high-risk activities. These risks include loss or damage to personal property, injury or fatality, collision with an object, immersion in water and hypothermia, falling while onboard a vessel or on shore, accidents or illnesses in remote places without medical facilities, and other unforeseeable events.

We recommend that you, and all members of your group wear life vests at all times and that you instruct each individual in your group as to it's proper fit and usage.

I, the undersigned, hereby acknowledge that I fully understand that there are inherent risks involved in river activities preliminary and subsequent thereto. I expressly covenant and state that I assume all risks for myself and the participants in my care.

I specifically release Camp Andrews, its officers, guides, agents, and staff from any liability as to any right of action or claim to relief that may accrue to me or my heirs or personal representatives for any such personal injury, loss of life loss of consortium, or loss of or damage to property, including gross negligence or reckless misconduct, which I may suffer on said trip.

I further agree to be responsible for canoes, paddles, life vests, and/or other equipment issued to me; I will inspect said equipment prior to using it in order to determine if it is in a safe condition of repair and seaworthy, and I agree to return it in the same general condition. All equipment shall be returned cleaned and completely air dried. Damaged or lost equipment will be assessed and parties will be charged according to cost of repair or replacement.
